ROUNDSMAN WINS THE CAPITOL STAKES IN GOOD STYLE-GOLD DOLLAR THROWS HIS RIDER. Washington, April 29.—Continued interest is manifested in the racing at Bennings, and the tenth manifested in the racing at Bennings, and the tenth day opened under splendid weather conditions, and an attendance not below the average for the meet-The field, although not heavy, was attractive. Shakespeare II. the handsome Walden colt, was scratched from the Capitoi Stakes, and the steeplechase was minus Hinwasse. In this race the second mishap of the meeting occurred, when Gold Dollar, with Green up, making a cyclonic rush for added laurels, lost his footing as he went over the last burdle in the long run, and threw his ider. Green lay for a few seconds prone upon his back on the turf, with the breath literally knocked out of him. The horse was soon on his feet, and the jockey was usly hurt. Gold Dollar made a good show his ability, when this trouble intervened, and but for the mishap would have justified in some degree at least the confidence of numerous backers. oundsman was an additional starter in the Capitol Stakes, and was a good favorite. FRAUD AT A CALIFORNIA TRACK. ATTEMPT TO SWINDLE THE BETTING PUBLIC

FIFTH RACE-Hurdle; handicap; two and a quarter miles.

Sen Francisco, April 29.—An attempt to defraud the betting public of thousands of dollars was defected at the Bay District track yesterday. In the last race on the card Frank Phillips's speedy mare Marjorie, a daughter of Iroquois, was heavily played all over the ring. Although in grand condiion in the morning, the mare warmed up greatly distressed, showing signs of having been "doped." officials in the stand were immediately advised of her condition. All bets were declared off and Marjorie was scratched. Phillips, her owner, had veterinary surgeon make a thorough examination of the animal. The surgeon discovered that a fine silken sponge that had been skilfully inserted in her nostril had seriously interfered with the filly's breathing. Then it was remembered that on Friday the decidedly warm favorite, Decision, had been afflicted in a manner similar to Marjorie and had finished last. Decision was brought out and the veterinary, after much trouble, succeeded in removing a sponge, much saturated with mucus, from one of the animal's nostrils. As sensation in turf circles on a par with the notorious "Little Pete" episode, and a thorough and searching investigation is promised. breathing. Then it was

MR. CROKER'S MONTAUK SOLD.

London, April 29.-A dispatch to the United Press "The Evening Star" that Richard Croker had sold his three-year-old colt Montauk and adds that the horse was sold because Mr. Croker had come to the conclusion that Montauk did not class high enough to win a race in England in the company in which he was entered.

Mr. Shary, the purchaser of Montauk, intends is take him out of all his engagements and put to hurdle racing.

ERDENHEIM STOCK FARM SOLD.

Polladelphia, April 29.—The celebrated stock farm m as Erdenheim, containing about two hundred and fifty acres, has been sold by Louis Kitson to Robert N. Carson. The price paid is said to be about 1880,000. Erdeaheim, which prior to 1882 was the Property of Aristides Welch, was the birthplace of any noted horses, among them Iroquois, the winner of the English Derby in 1881, and Parole, who made a mark on both continents.

Then it was decided to meet again at White Plains. This second meeting was held on Tuesday afternoon, and embraced the stockholders. All the former officers of the association were relected, and a committee, consisting of Messrs. Reynal, Leonard, Maitland, Fulton and Story, was appointed to make report on the matter of the next exhibition and the place of holding it. This committee will be expected to consider all the schemes presented and to report finally at a meeting to be held at No. 10 Wall-st. at 3 o'clock next Wednesday.

A PAIR OF 2:10 TROTTERS SOLD. RYLAND T., 2:07%, AND MAGNOLIA, 2:00%, PASS UNDER THE HAMMER AT THE FASIG SALE

-$3,000 FOR CEPHAS. Two 2:10 trotters and another that is known to be capable of beating this mark were the special attractions yesterday which drew a large crowd of horsemen and onlookers to the big sale now progress at Madison Square Garden under the direction of W. B. Fasig & Co. All three of these star trotters, Ryland T., 2:07%; Magnolia, 2:09%, and Cephas, 2:114, were purchased by Metropolitan horsemen, and it is probable that the two first named will be among the starters in the interclub trotting races between the road horses of New-York and Brooklyn next Saturday he brought a better price than either Ryland T. or Magnolia. This was due to the fact that the handsome gelding is commonly believed to be a prospective winner in his class, while the impression prevails, right or wrong, that the others are outclassed in the company in which their fast records would force them to start in the Grand Circuit. Cephas, as is well known among horsemen, was formerly owned jointly by John R. Keim, Frederick White, John Rudd and John P. Gibbs of this city. He was sold yesterday to dissolve a partnership Gibbs trained the horse at Fleetwood Park, and at the Grand Circuit meeting in New-York last year drove him to a record of 2:11%, winning a great In the final heat of his last race last season he was separately timed a half-mile in 1:0214 by W Janvier and others. Cephas looked as fit as a fiddle when led into the ring yesterday, and the bidding was spirited when the auctioneer called for bids on the sleek bay trotter. At $3,000 he was knocked down to John R. Keim, who said that he had made the purchase for H. V. Dodge. The horse will remain in the hands of his old trainer.

Ryland T., 2:07%, who was sold just before Cephas, went to W. B. Hayes, a Liberty-st. lawyer, who bought the famous campaigner for $1,325 to drive on the road in New-York. Ryland was a very erratic performer on the turf, getting distanced through his bad breaks about as often as he won, and this notoriety as a bad actor probably influenced his selling price yesterday. John M. Stewart, the former owner of Ryland, says the horse is perfectly steady on the road, and that he can pull a wagon at a very high rate of speed. He is eligible to the interclub races, Stewart having become a member of the New-York Driving Club before the entries to the cup races closed last Monday. It is said that Mr. Hayes will start the horse at Parkway next Saturday in the free-for-all race for the challenge cup. In point of demonstrated speed he is the fastest trotter driven on the road in New-York. Ryland T. was raised in Idaho, and was used as a cow pony when young. In 1892 he won the fastest seven-heat race then on record, and at Cleveland, July 25, 1894, he won the fastest three heats ever scored by a trotter up to that time, stepping his miles in 2:08%, 2:07% and 2:08%.

James McClenahan, one of the prominent members of the Driving Club of New-York and a very skilful amateur reinsman, bought Magnolia, 2:094, for $1,525, Charles F. Lutz, of Brooklyn, being the contending bidder. The mare has trotted in 2:1112 on a half-mile track, and she should be a formidable competitor for the challenge cup to be trotted for at Parkway next Saturday. Magnella is a handsome Parkway next Saturday. Magnelia is a handsome bay mare of medium size, nine years old, by Hampatch, son of Rysdyk's Hambletonias, and her dam was Mag Chief, by Bourbon Chief, ir. Mr. McClennhan has a breeding farm in Westchester County, and he will probably use the star troiter as a brood mare after she is retired from the road.

The speedy three-year-old pacer Rudd, by Raizac Chief, that paced a half-mile at Fleetwood last year in 100, was consigned to the cale by John P. Gibbs and sold to F. W. Blaisdell, of Brooklyn, for 11,100, he will be 'campaigned' this year. Knita, 2,234, a black trotting mare by Sir Knight, that has attracted a good deal of attention at Fleetwood recently, was sold for $1,400 to D. H. Smith, of Yonkers, H. B. Carroll, who consigned her to the sale, bought the mare at auction in Cambridge Cliy, Iad., a few weeks ago, for about $600. Since her arrival in New-York she has troited a half in 107 and a quarter in 0.338.

The once-noted pacer St. Patrick, 2:1419, by Volunteer, was knocked down for $350 to W. R. Edwards, of Rutherford, N. J. Country Girl, another out-classed side-wheeler, with a record of 2:1614, went for $310 to D. Valentine, of Yonkers. An unknown buyer paid $1,600 for the pacing mare Peerless, 2:1335, by Equity. The mare will be trained at Fleetwood Park by B. H. Demarest.

The trotting staillon Hayreuth, 2:204, by Stranger, who won more races last year than any troiter trained at Fleetwood, was knocked down at the low price of $500 to Thomas Lynch. He was sold to dissect the sale of the pacing mare peerless, 2:1335, by President of $100 to Thomas Lynch. trained at Fleetwood, was knocked down at the low price of $100 to Thomas Lynch. He was sold to dissolve a partnership, and Lynch was one of his former owners. Bayreuth trotted a mile in 2:17 in his work last season. Neily W., 2:149, an old gray mare owned by Park Commissioner Samuel Mo-Millan, and a great campaigner in her day, was sold for $575 to C. F. Liberty, of Newark. Facing Ti, a chestnut pacing stallion with a record of 2:1594, brought $425, H. N. Loveland, of Keypert, N. J., being the buyer. Marie Jansen, a trotting mare that Major S. T. Dickinson once paid $10,099 for, was struck off for $225 to John Keily. James H. Lewis, of Lancaster, Penn, bought the pacing stallion Alle L., 2:1094, by Lockerbie, for $50.

These were the principal transactions yesterda; The sale will be continued to-day and to-morrow.

THE HIAWATHA LAUNCHED.

CHARLES FLEISCHMANN'S HANDSOME STEAM-YACHT CHRISTENED AT NYACK. Gayly arrayed in the holiday attire of flags and streamers, with Japanese lanterns strung from bowsprit to masthead and throughout the rigging, the steam yacht Hiawatha presented a beautiful picture as she lay on the ways at Nyack, ready for launching, last night. The electric display was brilliant, two searchlights being arranged in the yards, with rays thrown on the boat, and numerous are lights on either side of the ways. Miss Annie Fleischmann, a niece of the owner, Charles Fleischmann, christened the yacht Hiawatha by breaking the customary bottle of champagne on the bows as the yacht gilded into the water. The Hiawatha is a composite-built vessel, 125 fee over all, 110 feet water line, 16 feet 2 inches beam, feet draught, and double planked above the water line. The machinery consists of a Seabury triple-expansion marine engine and a Seabury safety water tube boiler of 600-horse power, which will drive the yacht sixteen to seventeen miles an hour. She also has a complete electric light plant and a searchlight. The Hiawatha is flush deck, has two masts, and is fitted with water-tight steel bulk-heads. The forward deck-house is fitted as a dining-room, and immediately aft of this is a deck stateroom. The main saloon, owner's stateroom, bathrooms and guests' staterooms are all aft, th finish being varied in the different rooms. The saloon is of mahogany, and the statercoms and bathrooms are in butternut and white and gold. piano is fitted in the saloon

The yacht will carry a launch and three boats. She is enrolled in the fleets of the New-York, Larchmont and Atlantic Yacht clubs. A preliminary trial trip will be made within a few days, and the yacht will be finished in commission ready for the owner will be finished in commission ready for the owner about May 9.

The Hinwatha's hailing port is Cincinnati, the owner being a resident of that city and a State Senator. He is well known in the East as a turfman. She will be in charge of Capitain B. Frank Smith and Chief Engineer William B. Thompson.

The Hiawatha is the fifty-fifth vessel launched and completed at the works of Seabury & Co. They have the Kanawha, 160 feet long, John P. Duncan owner, to be launched in a few weeks; the 55-foot twin-screw steam yacht Mayita, for Louis Bossert; the 45-foot sloop yacht for Thomas A. McIntyre, New-York Yacht Club; a haif-rater for Howard C. Smith, vice-commodore Stamford Yacht Club; a haif-rater for a prominent Providence yachtsman; a 26-foot cathoat for George R. Thorne, of Chicago; a 54-foot sloop for a prominent yachtsman, and some others. A large number of yachts and launches are now at Seabury's, Nyack, being put in commission.

NEW-YORK YACHT CLUB'S FLEET CAPTAIN. "I will appoint the fleet captain of the New-York Yacht Club on May 1," remarked Commodore Edward M. Brown yesterday afternoon to a Tribune reporter. "I do not wish to anticipate my decision, but I do not suppose that it will surprise anybody when it comes." It may be added that there is a pretty general consensus of opinion that Chester Griswold will receive the honor.

The Knickerbocker Yacht Club announces that I will hold its annual regatta, open to all recognized clubs, on Saturday, June 6. Prizes will be given in the following classes: Schooners, 65-foot racing length; sloops and yawis, 43-foot, 36-foot, 36-foot and 25-foot racing length; cabin cats, 38-foot and 25-foot racing length; open cats, shifting ballast, 36-foot and 25-foot racing length; special N. Y. Y. C. 30-foot class; special "21-footers," and special "half-raters."

THE SENATORS VICTORIOUS

BROOKLYN DEFEATED IN A SPIRITED CONTEST AT EASTERN PARK.

A BIG CROWD AT THE OPENING GAME-THE HOME TEAM'S PITCHERS MADE THINGS EASY FOR WASHINGTON AT THE START.

GAMES YESTERDAY. Washington 6, Brooklyn 4, Pittsburg 9, Cleveland 2, Philadelphia 12, New-York 6,

The formal opening of the baseball championship season in Brooklyn is always an interesting spec-tacle, for the natives of the City of Churches love the National game, and they have been fortunate in having a club which has been conducted on sound business principles. Claw-like hands are not stuck into the faces of everybody who comes near the grounds, as in the case of another ball ground in this neighborhood, and the motto at Eastern Park is not: "I want your money," but rather: "We are public servants, and we are here to please you if

The handsome grounds in East New-York never presented a prettier picture than they did yesterday, when the Brooklyn and the Washington teams took their places to begin the first championship game were loaded down with well-dressed people, and money. Fair women, in stunning spring costumes were there in plenty, and if any of Brooklyn's pretty girls were absent it was not noticeable. A human wall extended across the outfield, such as has been seen in former years at the Polo Grounds.

The attendance was placed at 17,000, which is a larger crowd than has been seen at a ball game in this city in some time. The housetops in the neighborhood of the Park were crowded with people, and the thrifty owners must have made a pretty penny leasing out standing-room spaces to those who wished to witness the green diamond battle from such lofty perches. Conterno's Band of fifty pieces ively airs were played between the innings.

The only drawbacks were that the home team was beaten, and that that troublesome icy blast, direct from Jamaica Bay, swept over the grounds all the afternoon. Those who came thinly clad shivered and shook, and tears of repentance flowed down their cheeks when they thought of their beloved winter overcoats and wraps left at home.

It was a contest well worth seeing. The Senators at presen, are fees worthy of any team in the league, and they play baseball with a snap and freedom which opened the eyes of a large delegation of New-York enthusiasts who were present. Then the home team showed a disposition to fight the battle from start to finish, and they did not stop playing in a disheartened way, simply because their rivals happened to be a run or two in the There was no Polo Grounds baseball in Brooklyn

There was no Polo Grounds baseball in Brooklyn yesterday.

An unfortunate must by Griffin in the opening inning was responsible mainly for the first two runs scored by the Senators. In the third a base on balls, a hit by Joyce and an error by Anderson gave the Senators two more runs. The visitors sored one more in the fourth on a three-base hit by Rogers and De Monteville's out at first. Then Gumbert retired and Harper's wild pitching was responsible for the other run. Daub, the diminutive, was called to the resince in the sixth inning, and the little fellow had the Washington baisman at hit mercy during the remainder of the game.

McCarthy's drive between left and centre in the third was a home run, and the hit aroused the liveliest enthusiasm. Hits by Grim and McCarthy and a base on balls gave Brooklyn another run in the fifth. In the sixth, hits by Corcoran and Daub, a base on balls and a passed ball gave the home team the last two runs of the contest.

The men from Washington fielded in capital style, and they showed an enthusiasm in their work which was refreshing. Selback's all around work which was refreshing a Selback's all around work which was refreshing a Selback's all around work was sunerh and little De Monteville made a favorable, impression. He reminds one of "Shorty" Fuller Th. Brooklyn men played loosely at the start, awed possibly by the large crowd and their hearty reception. The team will do better. The tabulated result follows:

NEW-YORK AND DEFEAT.

THE LUCKLESS GIANTS SNUFFED OUT AGAIN BY THE QUARER CITY TEAM.

Philadelphia, April 29.-For three brief innings to day it looked as though the New-Yorkers were going to score their second victory, but in the fourth the Philadelphia sluggers jumped on "Dad" Clark's delivery for a total of fourteen bases, yielding six earned runs and, as it turned out, the game. Clark then retired in favor of Doheny. McGill was wild and was taken out in the fifth inning, Taylor taking his place. Attendance, 4,88. The score;

Dartmouth defeated Harvard in a close and exciting game. Harvard had things her own way until the seventh inning when Cozzens, who was pitching, gave five bases on balls, which, with a single hit netted three runs for Dartmouth. This single was the only time in the inning that the single was the only time in the inning that the ball was hit. The three Dartmouth men who got out went out on strikes. Harvard batted best, making nine hits, but fielded wretchedly. Dartmouth made only four scattered hits, but fielded sharply. The features of the game were a sensational catch by Dean and a sharp double play by Dean, Clarkson, and T. G. Stevenson. Score by innings:

A JUDGMENT FOR FREEDMAN.

Philadelphia, April 29,-"Andy" Freedman, manager of the New-York Baseball Club, has been awarded $1,717 judgment against the Athletic Assoclation of the University of Pennsylvania by the arbitrators appointed in the case-namely, Frank B. Ells, Bainbridge Cobby and Caspar W. Whitney, Edils, Bainbridge Cobby and Caspar W. Whitney, for the cancellation of the Boston Athletic Association football game last fall. The University of Pennsylvania siso lost about $1,000 additional for incidental expenses. Fredham fad made a contract for the playing of the game upon Manhattan Fied, New-York, and, after its sudden cancellation by the Faculty Adv.sory Committee, he brought suit against Pennsylvania, and the case was submitted to arbitration.

IN THE CYCLING WORLD.

WHEELMEN ANNOYED AT THE CONDI TION OF THE KINGSBRIDGE ROAD.

THE RACING BOARD AND THE CENTURY ROAL CLUB OFFICIALS TO HOLD A MEETING-THE

There has been a good deal of complaint about the condition of the Kingsbridge road between Onehundred-and-eighty-fourth-st, and the Harlem River city authorities in prosecuting improvement red dirt, which has made wheeling difficult. bicyclists especially have complained of the bad con bicyclists especially have complained of the bad condition of the upper end of the road. Deputy Commissioner H. P. Wilds, of the Department of Public Works, explained yesterday that the condition of the road was due to the fact that the paving of the avenue had been postponed to enable the Third Avenue Railroad Company to lay tracks there. Mr. Wilds added that the company's officials had informed the Water Purveyor, Mr. North, that the arrangements for the track-laying were nearly completed and that the company's application to lay the tracks would soon be submitted.

To the holders of coupons on the bleycle which was to have been drawn for at the fair of the Liberty Wheelmen, held during the week of December 2, 1885, it will be of interest to hear that the club has appointed a special committee to take the matter in hand. This committee, of which Clemens Weiss is chairman, has piedged itself to have the wheel drawn for, at a suitable place to be selected, within thirty days, and every person who holds a coupon will be notified of the time and place. The delay was caused by the absence of one of the members of the regular fair committee, and is much regretted by the club, which desires to apologize for the apparent neglect.

Speaking about the drives in Central Park yesterday a well-known wheelman said: "As I have seen riding on these Central Park roads for three years perhaps I can give a few points. The rolling is done with a small roller, drawn by two old horses and consequently the process is exasperatingly slow and necessarily not at all thorough. Such a thing as a steam roller is practically unknown on the Park drives, and for that matter on any of the roads in New-York City. Again, the sprinkling is carried to such an excess that the sides of the drives are ut all to pieces by a continuous series of little gui cut all to pieces by a continuous series of little gui-lles, made by the superfluous water in running of-to the gutters. These little cuts are about an inch deep and about eighteen inches apart, extending from the gutter well up toward the crown of the road. To a bleyele this hard ribbed roadway is almost intolerable. Besides this cutting up of the sides, the over-watering produces an abundant layer of mud that is most tenacious. What is need-ed is a dressing of a different composition from what has been used in late years; thorough and rapid rolling with a heavy steam roller, and lastly, to preserve the drives, sprinkling as distinguished from the usual flooding."

brate the closing of the indoor riding season on Saturday evening. The Entertainment Committee has prepared an interesting programme, and handsome prizes will be given in each contest. Several new features will be introduced, among which will be a May ride by members of the Cycle Clup. This will be the last music ride and entertainment of the season, but the clubhouse will be open for practice and storage of wheels, as usual.

The Racing Board of the League of American Wheelmen and the Century Road Club officials will hold a meeting soon to discuss the advisability of making a new arrangement for prizes for road faces.

The cycle path from Asbury Park to Trenton will cost $100 a mile. Chief Consul Gentle is enthusiastic about the route, and he says that the farmers in the district are deeply interested. Sigaboards are to be put up on the Hudson ounty Boulevard. It is a difficult matter now for strangers to tell where Michael J. Coyle, the superintendent of the Boulevard, has used his official authority to have the Boulevard kept clear of boys who congregate there and play baseball and foot-ball. The boys annoy the wheelmen and frighten

HER FRIENDS EXPRESS THEIR ESTEEM

RESOLUTIONS PRAISING HER CONDUCT OF THE OFFICE OF REGENT OF THE NEW-YORK CITY CHAPTER OF DAUGHTERS OF THE

AMERICAN REVOLUTION. Within the last few weeks some of the members of the New-York City Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution have made objection to the conduct of Mrs. Donald McLean as Regent of the Chapter. A statement, which was published in Monday's issue of The Tribune, gave the causes of the grievance, and the reasons entertained by those who opposed Mrs. McLean for thinking she should not be re-elected at the annual meeting and election to be held at Sherry's at 11 o'clock this morning. On Tuesday the friends of Mrs. McLean met and expressed their confidence in her. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. E. John son, No. 13 East Sixty-second-st. About fifty women of this city were present, and all of them assured Mrs. McLean of their admiration of her conduct as Regent, and of their warm support.

In addition to the verbal assurances of friendship that were given at the time, the following resolutions were passed unanimously by those present:

Among those present at the meeting were repre-sentatives of ten of the leading women's clubs of the city, and some of them are not connected with the Daughters of the American Revolution. Some the city, and some of them are not connected with the Daughters of the American Revolution. Some of the women who attended the gathering were Mrs. Roger Pryor, Mrs. Ogden Doremus, Mrs. Van Cortlandt Hamilton, Mrs. James Fairman, Mrs.

Vernon Mansfield Davis, Miss Jeanne C. IrwinMartin, Miss Pond, Mrs. Postley, Mrs. Tansley, Mrs. Stacy and Mrs. Johnson.
In addition to the verbal and written tribute that was paid by these women to Mrs. McLean, a magnificent bunch of American Beauty roses was given to her.
In speaking of the statement that has already been published, Mrs. McLean yesterday said: "I cannot say anything about this statement, as I have promised myself first and also my friends that I would not give out to the public that which concerns the Chapter alone. But I will say that some time ago, the offer of a reception was made to me by the delegates and alternates to the convention at Washington, when they found out that these people, some of whom were defeated for the same offices were endeavoring to 'get even.' I refused tris, as I do not believe in any meeting of the members of the Chapter that could be construed, no matter how unjustly, as a caucus. I do not believe in caucuses for patriotic societies.
They say that these people have endeavored to act as a nominating committee. The by-laws of the General Society and of the New-York City Chapter expressly forbid any nominations to be made except from the floor at the time of the annual election."

BAD BOYS IN YONKERS.

THEY BELONG IN NEW-YORK AND HAD APPAR-ENTLY RUN AWAY FROM HOME. Fifteen boys, ranging from eleven to sixtee years of age, living in One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st., New-York, were taken to police headquarters. Yonkers, last night, by Policeman Archer. The boys had evidently left home for a night's fun, and were having it when the officer appeared. They began by annoying the residents of Lamartine-ave., and one family had to lock the doors and send for the police. When Archer appeared he was in citizen's clothes and surprised the boys on the railroad track. They started to run, when the officer drew his revolver. This stopped seven of them, and the rest ran. Archer marched them to headquarters and started out to hunt up the rest. Five were found in Dock-st., and two more were in the village near Getty Square. Sergeant Woodruff, who was at the desk, put them down as lodgers and asked the New-York police to inform their parents. They began to carry on so that Doorman Carey was compelled to get an officer to help him put them in the cells. The police are of the opinion that the boys have run away from home. quarters, Yonkers, last night, by Policeman Archer.

KNIT GOODS MILLS SUSPEND.

Troy, N. Y., April 29.—Francis A. Fales, treasurer of the United Knitting Company, of Ameterdam, the Hudson Valley Knitting Company, of and the Hudson Valley Knitting Company, of Waterford, has filed an application for a receiver for both companies. The failures are attributed to hard times and depression in the knit goods busi-ness. The milis closed Saturday, and nearly three hundred persons were thrown out of employment. The liabilities of the Amsterdam company are esti-mated at $125,000, and of the Waterford company at 200,000.
